

Exhausted Lazybones – Dreggy Sybarite

flipping through the channels i meet my families mired in their delightful disputes happy endings

pounding buttons my avatar dies and revives i've mastered every level worlds conquering browsing sites i swing from links; youtube + google + so socially networking my countless befriending

regretting words oh doll sorry forgive me please friends refriend my loves love sorries abandoning envisioning breakthrough art shapes history YEAH innovative revolutions so evolving

Exhausted Lazybones

i get so high i delete all of my accomplishments everything before this bowl was a blunder i hope i'll produce one barrel of wonder before my next destructive descent i get so drunk i wail like clanging clouds my neighbors call the mental house klutzy history or on woman grouse dispersing sneering supercilious crowds i get so caffeinated my nails grow chomping away i lose my digits and invent and forget a million widgets that coulda shoulda; oh pure black snow i get so studious i kill my family with in fact, indeed, furthermore says head to toes on canvas' Fauver meanwhile graphs hang ephemerally i get so suicidal i can't see a(ny)thing beside finger guns boiling brain cry sy rain rain rain rain rain rain 400 milligrams i still ain't king
