

Unwind Time

unwind time and lay it flat out everything laying imagination sprawling sweet nectar sweet fruit sweet satan sweet suicide sweetie, die.
sweetie, die die die.
oh, mom, i miss you and wish i could say i love you.

a fine line between grime and shine?
oh, unwind time and lay it out flat on the ground blank or just blind - i can't choose what time memory spikes random

sweetie, don't lie.
sweetie, please lie.
so, alone - i hate my home.

only a crime unwind time blank face - apathy or creepy nobody knows the troubles i've seen so i guess i'll go eat worms sweetie crawls in my dreams what can i control is controlling me sweetie ate up my fears and her tears, my conscience screams

400 milligrams of extended release manic cease - suicidal caprice smile smile smile sweetie smile sweetie sweetie sweetie smile sweetie let's go on all the rides let's drink all the time until we can unwind

everybody loves happy man singing i won't ever be happy again dancing twirling drenched in rain
